After one calendar month from the day of the Race, the Organizer is not responsible for preservation of the product and is entitled to dispose of it at any time.

12. Basic Rules of the Race

The Race is carried out in full compliance with technical rules of athletic competitions of World Athletics, Association of International Marathons and Distance Races (AIMS), Athletics Association of Ukraine, Technical Race Regulations, Advertising Rules and decisions of Race Race Organizers.

The Race Organizer reserves the right to make changes to the Race Program.

12.1 Basic rules:

- The Race Organizer reserves the right to cancel the Race (before or during the event) due to weather and/or other force majeure circumstances;
- Rules and General Terms is an official document that acts as a contract between the Race Organizer and the participant;
- Any suggestions, amendments and supplements to this document are accepted by email to the Race Organizer: registration@runukraine.org.

12.2 Health.

- Each Race participant participates in the Race voluntarily, recognizing all possible risks to their own health during and after the Race;
- Each participant takes personal responsibility for his or her physical condition and ability to complete the chosen Race course;
- Accident insurance, which covers participation in sports competitions on the day of the Race, is included in the participant's starter package for all courses;
- The Race Organizer is not held responsible for physical trauma, injuries, and deterioration of physical health that a participant experiences during the Race;
- The Race Organizer is not held responsible for deterioration of physical health of a participant after the Race.

12.3. Emergency during the Race

TO THE ATTENTION OF ALL RACE PARTICIPANTS!

In case State Emergency Service sends a warning about possible significant deterioration of weather conditions or in case of threat to the life or health of people due to extreme weather events (including but not limited to earthquake, flood, hurricane, hail, cyclone, storm, lightning, other natural disasters) in the region of the Race on the eve or on the day of the Race, the Race Organizer reserves the right to take measures at its sole discretion to ensure safety of participants, audience, fans and all of those who take direct or indirect part in the Race.

The Organizing Committee of the Race has developed an internal security scale. In case of extreme weather conditions, the Organizing Committee will act according to the scale implementing the approved plan and will demand that all participants abide by its commands, namely:

Danger Level 1 - wind speed 7-9 meters per second - dismantling of inflatable arches, light construction (including kilometer indicators), light tents, promo and photo zones.

Danger Level 2 - wind speed 9.5-10 meters per second - dismantling of all tents, photo zones, dismantling of the crossbar of the start/finish arch.

The project manager will ask you to remove anything that may be dangerous. There is high probability of canceling of children's races.

The decision about the need to cancel children's races will be made immediately before the start of the children's race based on the actual weather conditions at the time.

Danger Level 3 - wind speed 11 meters per second or more - a collegiate decision to hold or cancel the Race will be made.

The committee making such decision consists of: Dmytro Chernitskyi, the General Manager of NGO "Run Ukraine", Ivan Tretiakov, Project Manager, SES representative in the region, representative of the title sponsor of the Race (or another official of the Race title sponsor).

FOLLOW THE ANNOUNCEMENTS OF THE ORGANIZING COMMITTEE!

13 Liability for property damage

13.1. The Race Organizer is not held responsible for any damage caused to the health and/or property of Race participants or spectators before, during or after the Race by other Race participants, spectators, third parties or weather conditions.

13.2. The Race Organizer is not held responsible for any damage to the health, property of Race participants or spectators caused before, during or after the Race by actions or inactivity of the services ensuring the order of motor traffic on the route, municipal or other services servicing the Race.

14. Race

14.1. Each Race participant must unconditionally obey the instructions of the Race Organizer, judges, medical staff and volunteers until the participant is removed from the course.

14.2. Each participant is given a race bib number, which must be visible on the chest throughout the Race.

14.3. Each Race participant must write personal information (name, contact phone number, e-mail, blood type) on the back side of the race bib number.

14.4. It is strictly forbidden to give your race bib number to another person for the purpose of using it in the Race on the course of choice.

14.5. Each Race participant must independently overcome the course of choice along the marked route, without cutting the distance, and adhere to the traffic rules of Ukraine.

14.6. Each participant bears personal responsibility for his/her own safety while participating in the Race.

14.7. Race participants are strictly forbidden to use technical means (bicycles, motorcycles, motorbikes, etc.) on the Race courses.

14.8. Race participants are strictly forbidden to use "guidance" from persons who do not participate in the Race or "guidance" using technical means (bicycles, roller skates (in running), etc.) on Race courses.

15. Team Races (teams and relays 3x10 + 1x12,195 km; 4x21,0975 km; 2x21,0975 km; 3x5 + 1x6,0975 km; 4x5 km)

Mixed teams of commercial and non-profit organizations consisting of 2 or 4 people aged 14 and over are allowed to participate in the relay.

If the organization cannot find 2 or 4 members from within, it can attract volunteers.

All four members of the team are required to participate in the relay races.

A team is considered registered if its representative has filed an application form, filled in a registration form and has paid the entry fee for the team.

Each participant is assigned a particular relay stage upon registration. The order of participants can be change on the website runukraine.org, in participant's personal account.

During the relay race, the chip transfer procedure must only take place in a special "transfer zone".

After the Race the relay teams, which have taken places 1 through 5, must approach judges at the information tent to go through identification process. You must have an ID, your race number and wear a bracelet received in the starter package.

Violation of any of the above rules will result in disqualification of the entire team.

The result of the relay team is the result of the participant of the last, fourth, stage of the relay at the finish line.

Payment for participation in a corporate relay is made by bank transfer based on the invoice issued by the Race Organizer. The proof of payment must be sent to registration@runukraine.org no later than 10 days before the event. All questions regarding organization of the corporate relay should be sent to registration@runukraine.org.

16. Time limit

The time limit in athletic races is:

- marathon (42.195 km) - 6 hours;
- half marathon (21.0975 km) - 3 hours;
- 10 km running - 1 hour 20 minutes;
- 4.2 or 5 km running - 40 minutes;
- 4.2 km walking - 45 minutes;

100 m	2014 - 2017	100 m with parents	2014 - 2019

The age of a Race participant is determined as of December 31 of the current year.

Please, notice! Participants 15-17 years old must also have Parental (legal representative) consent to participation of a minor in the race on the courses of 4.2 km, 10 km

(Annex 1 or Annex 2 respectively)

Participant can only participate on one course, according to the Race program. The only exception is Security Cup 4.2 km, which is within the general 4.2 km course. Security Cup participants are included in the overall 4.2 km ranking and also have a separate ranking for the specific Security Cup course category. The Security Cup course is not a separate course, but it is a separate category that is included in the general course of 4.2 km.

18. Result Scoring System

The scoring system is provided and ensured by:

- Electronic timekeeping system;
- Judges using manual timing devices only for the first 5 men and 5 women.

Race Organizer would like to notify that the electronic timekeeping system has a certified loss percentage - no more than 3% of the total number of chips.

The Race Organizing Committee does not guarantee capturing personal results of each participant in the following cases:

- participant attached the number incorrectly;
- participant started the race with someone else's race bib number;
- race bib number is torn, crumpled, etc.;
- result capturing electronic chip has been demagnetized, torn, crushed, etc.;
- race bib number was lost.

Throughout the course, the race bib number must be preserved in the form in which it was received. It is strictly forbidden to remove, cover and/or damage it (cut, bend, etc.).

The Race Organizer must publish a preliminary protocol of the Race on the event website not later than the next day after the Race.

Participants may appeal preliminary results no later than 30 minutes after the official results are published in the Information area and in the area for Race judges.

The cost for submission of an appeal - 500 UAH (five hundred hryvnia).

In case of satisfaction (partial satisfaction) of the appeal, the money is returned.

Protests and appeals are not considered after this deadline.

19. Procedure of Determining Award Winners and Medalists

The award winners and medalists of the Race among athletes are determined according to the fact of finishing according to paragraph №165.24 (WA rules).

19.1. Each type of race has age requirements and awards. After determining the winners on each course, the Race Organizer publishes Race results on the website specified in the Race Regulations.

19.2. The prize scale is determined by the Race Organizer for each course at the discretion of the Race Organizer.

Payment of monetary prizes to the determined winners of the race is made by non-cash transfer within 14 calendar days from the day of completion of the Race. The payment is made to the winner's bank account. The monetary prize shall be paid only when the winner provides the Race Organizer with the originals and copies of his/her documents: passport, individual tax code and complete bank card details.

A participant may be awarded late provided that the participant did not attend the award ceremony in his or her age group. In this case, the prize is sent by mail at the expense of the Race Organizer to the address specified by the participant at registration (only on the territory of Ukraine, foreign citizens pay money transfer fee at their own expense).

The Organizing Committee of the Race is not responsible for the delivery of prizes if the participant has given an incorrect address.

Winners and medalists receive memorable prizes.

A participant who has been awarded in absolute championship may not be awarded in his or her age group.

20. Protests and claims. Deadlines for filing protests and claims

The participant or his/her official representative has the right to file a protest or claim no later than 30 minutes after publication of the official results. The protests and claims are considered by the panel of judges, which includes: Chief Judge, Senior Judge of the Start and Finish Area, Chief Secretary, Chairman of the Mandate Committee, Project Manager, Athletes Manager.

Protests and claims may include:

- Protests and claims affecting distribution of prizes;

- Protests and claims related to inaccuracies in measurement of time it took the participant to run the distance;
- Protests and claims regarding disqualification of a participant for unsportsmanlike conduct.
- Protests and claims about participant(s) not being admitted to the race must be submitted prior to the start of the Race. If the issue cannot be resolved before the Race starts, then the participant(s) is allowed to participate in the Race “while in protest”, despite the protest submitted.

Some claims can be ignored by the Committee due to their insignificance (this includes typographical errors, incorrect personal data etc.).

Protests shall be submitted to the panel of judges in an appropriate form (Annex 3).

When submitting a protest, the following information must be provided:

- First name and last name (anonymous protests are not considered);
- The nature of the protest (what the claim is about);
- Materials that prove violation of rules (photo, video).

Data received from individual timekeepers are not accepted.

Protests or claims are accepted only from participants of the Race or from third parties who are official representatives of the participants.

Terms of submission of protests and claims, as well as method of their submission:

- Protests affecting distribution of prizes in absolute championship are accepted by the panel of judges in a written form from the moment the winners are announced and until the official award ceremony.
- Distribution of prizes after the awards ceremony can only be reviewed by the panel of judges if the winner has been found to be in breach of the current rules if detection of violations was not possible before the award ceremony (for example, the fact of using doping).
- The decision to review the medalist places is taken by the Race Director.

Race participants may appeal preliminary results no later than 30 minutes after the official results are published in the Information area and in the area for Race judges.

The cost of submission of a protest is 500 UAH (five hundred hryvnia).

Protests and appeals are not considered after this deadline.

21. Disqualification

The panel of judges reserves the right to disqualify a participant if:

- a participant ran under another participant's race number;
- a participant used a shortcut;

- a participant ran a course for which he/she was not registered;
- a participant used means of transportation (bicycle, scooter, car, etc.);
- a participant started the race before the official start;
- a participant received assistance during the Race from outsiders;
- a participant started the Race after the start area had been closed;
- a participant came to the finish line after the finish area had been closed;
- a participant did not start the Race from the start area;
- a participant ran without the official Race number;
- a participant used doping;
- a participant displayed unsportsmanlike conduct.

All photo and video materials available to the Race Organizer may be used by the Race Organizer as supporting evidence confirming the event of violation of the Race rules.

22. Travel Permit

The travel permits will be marked by a representative of the NGO "Run Ukraine" only during receipt of the starter package the day before the Race.

23. Information sources

Detailed information about the Race is published by the Race Organizing Committee on the official website specified in the Race Regulations.

The Organizing Committee is not responsible for information from other information sources.
